

Republic of the Philippines
CEBU TECHNOLOGICAL UNIVERSITY
MOALBOAL CAMPUS: Poblacion West, Moalboal, Cebu
Tel. No. 474-8196; 474-8104
Tel. Fax No.: 474-8196; 474-8383; 474-8104
HYPERLINK
"http://www.ctu.edu.ph"
http://www.ctu.edu.ph
Email: ctumoaalboalcampus@gmail.com

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

1ST SEMESTER - AY 2021-2022

GEC TCW- THE CONTEMPORARY WORLD

MIDTERM EXAM

Multiple choice. Write the letter of the correct answer.

1. Which of the following is an attribute of today's global system?

- a. Countries interact with each other through supremacy. b. All states are dependent to each other.
c. International organizations also take on lives of their own. d. International organizations are solely focused on economic matters.

2. Which of following is an attribute of a nation?

- a. It governs a specific territory. b. It imposes sovereignty over its territory.
c. It highlights the organic ties that hold groups of people together. d. It exercises authority over a specific population

3. Security Council's veto power over resolutions has minimal impact to UN's functions.

- a. TRUE b. FALSE c. all of the above

4. United Nation's Trusteeship Council is still operational.

- a. TRUE b. FALSE c. all of the above

5. Nation-states no longer have influences on IGOs since they also take lives on their own.

- a. TRUE b. FALSE c. all of the above

6. Nation-states no longer have influences on IGOs since they also take lives on their own.

- a. TRUE b. FALSE c. all of the above

7. Which of the following is not a member state of ASEAN?

- a. Sri Lanka b. Brunei c. Malaysia d. Vietnam

8.The following states have permanent membership in the UN's Security Council except for one.

a. China b. Russia c. United States d. Germany

9.This is UN's central deliberative and the only organ where member-states have equal representation in discussion and consideration, and policymaking.

a. International Court of Justice b. Secretariat c. General Assembly d. Economic and Social Council

10.Internationalization, also known as globalization, refers to the deepening of interactions between states.

a.TRUE b.FALSE c.all of the above

11.Which of the following is not an effect of globalization to nation-states?

a. Creation of standardized global government b. Imposition of forced choice

c. Rise of transnational activism d. Establishment of economic and political integrations

12.Which of the following is ASEAN's motto?

a. United in Diversity b. A Mind Unfettered in Deliberation c. One Vision, One Identity, One Community d. Never Again

13.The creation of League of Nations was a big factor in ending World War II.

a.TRUE b.FALSE c.all of the above

14.Issues on global economy are the main concern of the United Nations.

a.TRUE b.FALSE c.all of the above

15.Which of following is not a primary function of the United Nations?

a. Scrutinizes human rights violations b. Promoting cultural heritages

c. Maintaining peace and security d. Delivering humanitarian aid 16.The global interstate system is a facet of contemporary political globalization that seeks to form collaboration among nation states through the establishment of intergovernmental organizations.

a.TRUE b.FALSE c.all of the above

17.They have investments in other countries, but do not have a coordinated product offering in each country. They are more focused on adapting their products and services to each individual local market

a. MNC b. TNC c. Global Companies d. International Companies

18.They are importers and exporters with no investments outside their home countries.

a. MNC b. TNC c. Global Companies d. International Companies

19.They have investments and are present in many countries. They typically market their products and services to each individual local market.

a. MNC b. TNC c. Global Companies d. International Companies

20. They are more complex organizations that have investments in foreign operations, have a central corporate facility but give decision - making, research and development, and marketing powers to each individuals foreign market.

a. MNC b. TNC c. Global Companies d. International Companies

21.It aims to end extreme poverty and promote shared prosperity in a sustainable way.

a. World Bank b. International Monetary Fund c. ADB d. AfDB

22.It works to foster global monetary cooperation, secure financial stability, facilitate international trade and more.

a. World Bank b. International Monetary Fund c. ADB d. AfDB

23.It is an American multinational investment banking and financial corporation. It is the 4th largest bank in the US.

a. Citigroup b. Merrill Lynch c. AfDB d. ADB

24.Their missions are to spur social progress and economic growth in order to address and reduce poverty.

a. ADB and AfDB b. Citigroup and Merrill Lynch c. WB and IMF

25.Both intergovernmental and private institutions help the functionality of a global economic by lending money to their member states and global corporations.

a.TRUE b.FALSE c.all of the above

26.It was the result of the establishment of global economy that involved the homogenization of trade and commerce.

a. Globalization b. Globalism c. Global market integration d. Global market

27.It started when big American corporations began to emerge after the second WW2 with the rise of new conglomerates. a. Globalization b. Globalism c. Global market integration d. Global market

28. Which of the following is NOT the structural periods in the existence of global corporation after the war?

a. investment-based period b. trade-based period c. digital globalization d. target-based period

29. What are the three common attributes of global corporation? (choose 3 answers)

a. an agent of desired economic development b. an economic prominence

c. a very powerful entity that can create crisis d. exploitation of environment

30. It is an attitude that seeks to understand all the interconnections of the modern world and to highlight patterns that underlie them.

a. Globalization b. Globalism c. Global market integration d. Global interstate system

31. It is a facet of contemporary political globalization that seeks to form collaboration among nation-states thru the establishment of intergovernmental organization.

a. Globalization b. Globalism c. Global market integration d. Global interstate system

32. It makes world affairs systematic, secured and formulaic.

a. Globalization b. Global governance c. Global market integration d. Global interstate system

33. It is the central deliberative and only organ where all member-states have equal representation in discussion, and consideration and policymaking.

a. General Assembly b. Security Council c. Trusteeship Council d. International Court of Justice

34. It is the main organ for cooperation, policy review, policy dialogue, advice on social, economic and environmental issues.

a. Secretariat b. Economic and Social Council c. Trusteeship Council d. International Court of Justice

35. The organ which has the commitment to preserve peace and security.

a. General Assembly b. Security Council c. Trusteeship Council d. International Court of Justice

36. The organ tasked to execute the daily activities assigned by the five other organs.

a. Secretariat b. Economic and Social Council c. Trusteeship Council d. International Court of Justice

37. The organ tasked to administer international oversight for 11 territories and to make sure that adequate procedure are taken for independence and self-government.

a. Secretariat b. Economic and Social Council c. Trusteeship Council d. International Court of Justice

38.UN's prime judicial organ

a. Secretariat b. Economic and Social Council c. Trusteeship Council d. International Court of Justice

39.UN is appreciated regarding how its convening capacity and mobilizing power are utilized to help funnel and consolidate knowledge from outside and ensure its discussion and dissemination among governments.

a.TRUE b.FALSE c.all of the above

40.Institutions can be places where ideas are concerned and left behind. The modality and processes for enforcing compliance with international norms and laws are not present. In fact, some UN staff members violate, cheat and challenge them.

a.TRUE b.FALSE c.all of the above

41.It defines the political scope of globalization.

a. General Assembly b. Contemporary Global governance c. Trusteeship Council d. International Court of Justice

42.UN belittle the helping hand of non - governmental organizations (NGOs) and the global public opinion.

a.TRUE b.FALSE c.all of the above

43.The contrasting moral structures of social behavior in different member - states complicate the formulation of a normative standard is not applicable to all.

a.TRUE b.FALSE c.all of the above

44. It is responsible for bringing human rights into the realm of international law thru the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

A. United Nations b. WTO c. Trusteeship Council d. International Court of Justice

45.United Nations was established after _____.

a. World war 1 b. World War 2 c. none of the above

46.Their primary aim is to foster strong economic, political, cultural educational, and technical intergovernmental relationships.

A. United Nations b. Intergovernmental Organizations c. Trusteeship Council d. International Court of Justice

47.Which of the following is NOT effect of globalization on nation-states?

a. rise of MNC b. establishment of economic and political integration c. impose a forced choice upon nation-states d. creation of new communication network

48.Economically poor families, underprivileged individuals, labor practices, and suppression of human rights, and other violations of basic rights in Europe, Australia, US, and Canada are the pieces of evidence that people from developed countries also share similar experiences with people from developing countries.

a.TRUE b.FALSE c.all of the above

49.It is the growth of societal integration within a region and to the often undirected processes of social and economic interaction

a. Regionalism b. Regionalization c. Globalizationd. Globalism

50. It is the expansion and intensification of social relations and consciousness across world-time and world-space.

a. Regionalism b. Regionalization c. Globalization d. Globalism

II. Fill in the blanks. Write the correct answer based on the details provided.

_____1.This is the most basic form of economic cooperation. Member countries remove all barriers to trade between themselves but are free to independently determine trade policies with nonmember nations.

_____2.This type provides for economic cooperation as in a free-trade zone. Barriers to trade are removed between member countries. The primary difference from the free trade area is that members agree to treat trade with nonmember countries in a similar manner.

_____3.This type allows for the creation of economically integrated markets between member countries. Trade barriers are removed, as are any restrictions on the movement of labor and capital between member countries. Like customs unions, there is a common trade policy for trade with nonmember nations. The primary advantage to workers is that they no longer need a visa or work permit to work in another member country of a common market.

_____4.This type is created when countries enter into an economic agreement to remove barriers to trade and adopt common economic policies.

_____5.It refers to the increasing interdependence of world economies as a result of the growing scale of cross-border trade of commodities and services, flow of international capital and wide and rapid spread of technologies.

_____ 6. Type of advancement where there is a reduced cost in transportation and communication makes it possible to organize and coordinate global production which makes the concept of national boundaries and distance for certain economic activities meaningless.

_____ 7. Types of companies that can globally organize production and allocate resources according to the principle of profit maximization. Their global expansions are reshaping macroeconomic mechanisms of the operation of the world economies.

_____ 8. A section of the economy which is made up of firms and institutions that provides financial services to commercial and retail customers. The sector is comprised of many different industries including banks, investment companies, insurance companies, and real estate firms. It advances loans for businesses so they can expand, grants mortgages to homeowners, and issues insurance policies to protect people, companies, and their assets.

_____ 9. It is a process in which two or more states in a broadly defined geographic area reduce a range of trade barriers to advance or protect a set of economic goals.

_____ 10. Refers to a set of social processes that appear to transform the present social condition of conventional nationality into one of globality.

_____ 11. a concept that describes various methods employed by one country to gain control (sometimes through territorial conquest) of another country (or geographic area) and then to exercise control, especially political, economic, and territorial, over that country (or geographic area).

_____ 12. the creation by the colonial power in the country (or geographic area) that has been colonized of an administrative apparatus to run its internal affairs.

_____ 13. a "project" that is primarily concerned with the economic development of specific nation - states not regarded as sufficiently developed.

_____ 14. "the import by non - Americans of products, images, technologies, practices and behaviour that are closely associated with America/Americans.

_____ 15. a combination of classical liberalism's commitment to individual liberty with neo classical economics devoted to the free market and opposed to state intervention in that market.

_____ 16. And _____ 17. These two are intergovernmental financial institutions that were created to spur social progress and economic growth to address and reduce poverty.

_____ 18. It was established on October 24, 1954. Primarily, it was tasked to promote international cooperation and to restore international order.

_____19.It is an American multinational investment banking and financial corporation. It is the fourth largest bank in the US.

_____20. It is the wealth management division of the Bank of the America. Both institutions provide investments around the world.

21. 22. 23.Both intergovernmental and private financial institutions help facilitate the functionality of a global economy by lending money to their members states and global corporations which can also provide international capital like_____, _____, and_____.

_____24. They are importers and exporters with no investments outside their home countries.

_____25. They have investments in other countries, but do not have coordinated product offering in each country. They are more focused on adapting their products and services to each individual local market.

_____26. They have investments and are present in many countries. They typically market their products and services to each individual local market.

_____27.They are more complex organizations that have investments in foreign operations, have a central corporate facility but give decision making, research and development, and marketing powers to each individual foreign market.

28. The global flow of people, especially refugees and_____, poses a direct threat to the nation - state and its ability to control its borders.

29. The looming crises associated with dwindling _____threaten to lead to riots and perhaps insurrections that could lead to the downfall of extant governments.

30. The inability of the nation - state to control economic flows dominated by _____, as well as the current economic and financial crisis that is sweeping the world, is also posing a profound threat to the nation – state.

31. _____They are related to global warming, are very likely to be destabilizing politically.

32. _____,especially malaria, TB, and AIDs in Africa, pose a danger to political structures.

33._____is the most obvious global flow threatening the nation – states involved, especially those on the losing side.

34. _____, especially the profound and growing North-South split, threaten to pit poor nations against rich nations.

35. _____ is clearly regarded as a threat by those nations against which it is waged (hence the so-called "war on terrorism" in the US).

_____ 36. UN ' s main deliberative body.

_____ 37. It is responsible for the maintenance of international peace and security.

_____ 38. The UN was envisioned as a major force in managing peace and security, especially in inter-state relations.

_____ 39. It promotes actions that would lead to reductions in global inequality.

40. _____ - (e.g. pollution, hazardous wastes) which are dealt with primarily through the United Nations Environment Programme.

_____ 41. A variety of UN - sponsored human rights treaties and agreements have protected human rights around the world.

42. _____, the nation-state faces innumerable challenges, leading to a significant loss of control over global flows and transnational organizations.

_____ 43. It is a movement towards political integration of transnational actors aimed at negotiating responses to problems that affect more than one state or region.

_____ 44. Social group linked through common descent, culture, language, or territorial contiguity.

_____ 45. A fluid and dynamic form of collective identity; members of the community believe that they are different from other groups.

_____ 46. is a doctrine and (or) political movement that seeks to make the nation the basis of a political structure, especially a state.

_____ 47. Organizational structure outside other socioeconomic hierarchies with relatively autonomous office-holders.

_____ 48. Integrates sub-groups that define themselves as a nation with the organizational structure of the state.

49. _____ defined as the "entitlement of individuals to life, security, and well-being"

50. _____, leading to problems such as: outsourcing and pressures toward downsizing, as well as the current economic crisis

Prepared by:

NERISSA MAE ESCABAS-HERNANDEZ, Dev.Ed.D.